EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Kevin L. Daffer on 4-26-05.
3. The application has been amended as follows: the attorney agreed to cancel claims 20 and 21.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
5. The examiner considered the Amendment filed on 1-03-05, and after updated search, no prior art of record has taught that which was taught by the amended claims.
6. The prior art of record, Nason, patent #6,727,918 teaches a display system that is capable of using multiple user interfaces one which may be dependent on the native operating system (such an image can be user defined) and one which may be independent of the native operating system (such as a default image). The system has software (code) capable of generating an image, which is independent of the native operating system, when an application program is executed; and further software (code) capable of generating an image, which is dependent on the native operating system, when an application program is executed. Nason teaches, in column 25, lines 27-40, a control for controlling the relationship between the primary and secondary GUIs in terms of what is displayed in what location at what time, as the claim is amended to state.

The prior art of record, however, doesn't teach a peer component that is configured to "enable a selection capability of the UIManager..." or "disable the selection capability of the UIManager, wherein the disablement causes the UIManager to select the first pointer." This is an enablement to allow selection of a first or second pointer.

7. The prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest the combination as presented by independent claim 1.

8. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
